FOUL PLAY OPINED IN DROWNING CASE

Belief Expressed That a McKeesport Patrolman Is Lured to Water's Edge, Murdered, And the Body Pitched Into River

ROBBERY IS NOT MOTIVE

Credence to Foul Play Supposition Is Fact That Body Came to Surface After Less Than 12 Hours—Robbery Not Motive, As Money Is Recovered

Yesterday the body of Patrolman Gustave Sandquist, 62 years old, of McKeesport, was discovered floating in the Monongahela river at the foot of Market street, McKeesport, and the belief is entertained that the decedent met with foul play. The fact that $182 and a gold watch were found in Sandquist's clothing, precludes robbery motive.

It is opined that Sandquist was lured to the water's edge, murdered, and his body tossed into the river. McKeesport police are attempting to question persons whose enmity the dead patrolman may have incurred during his 15 years' association with the police bureau of McKeesport.

The body had apparently been in the water from 12:49 o'clock Sunday morning, when the watch found in the clothing had stopped, until 12:05 o'clock in the afternoon when it was sighted as it floated by the wharf at the foot of Market street.

Giving credence to their supposition that Sandquist met with foul play, police say, is the fact that the body came to the surface after less than 12 hours, eliminating all possibility of suicide by drowning causes a body to stay under water at least several days.

If Sandquist was dead or even unconscious when thrown into the river the body would have risen soon after say police.

Their theory of foul play is substantiated, they say, by the fact that Sandquist had no known cause to end his life.

NATIONAL CODE OF BUSINESS ETHICS

A set of fifteen principles, advanced by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, was put today before the Charleroi Chamber of Commerce for adoption as part of a movement to establish in the United States a national code of business ethics.

The local organization was asked to not only accept the code itself, but was requested to have it adopted by the organization's own membership of business firms.

The code was adopted recently by the National Chamber at its Twelfth Annual meeting. It was prepared by a special committee headed by Judge Edwin B. Parker, umpire of the German-American Mixed Claims Commission, and made up of nationally known business men and lawyers.

The local organization will consider the code at an early date.

The fifteen fundamental principles as set forth in the code, cover a wide range of business activities. They are as follows:

I. The foundation of business is confidence, which springs from integrity, fair dealing, efficient service and mutual benefit.

II. The reward of business for service rendered is a fair profit plus a safe reserve, commensurate with risks involved and foresight exercised.

ONE FATALLY HURT IN A BOMB EXPLOSION

Detroit, Mich., July 7.—Three persons were injured, one of them fatally, when a bomb explosion wrecked a wholesale sugar house here early today.

Jacob Schwartz, Jr., 20, is near death in a hospital here as a result of his injuries. His father and mother also were hurt. All three were sleeping on the second floor.

Police link the explosion with a feud which resulted in the slaying of Isadore Cantor, Detroit sugar merchant, in New York, several weeks ago.

Cantor's former business associate is a brother-in-law of the senior Schwartz, it is said.

BOY MEETS WITH UNIQUE ACCIDENT

Albert Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, 101 Prospect avenue, met with a unique accident Saturday forenoon at 11 o'clock, which placed him in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, requiring an operation to be performed for the removal of a splinter from the shinbone of his right leg.

The boy, who is 13 years old, was riding down hill, when the tongue of the express wagon switched and struck him in the right leg below the knee—on the shinbone, imbedding a splinter in the leg. The condition of the lad is reported as satisfactory.

It Is Possible In the Event of A Break That Two Separate Conventions May Be Held

Madison Square Garden, July 7.—Possibilities of a wide-open split in the Democratic party which would result in an adjournment of the session here followed by two new separate conventions, one of which would nominate William G. McAdoo and the other, Governor Al Smith, began to appear as balloting was resumed for the seventh day.

The first action of the convention today in the order of the regular business was to cast aside the peace agreement signed by candidates except McAdoo to relieve their delegates from all pledges and obligations.

Delegates are planning to meet in some other city two weeks hence. The Smith forces, it is understood, will vote for such a resolution this time and there will run the McAdoo and Smith conventions as the split in the party along religious lines will be complete. James J. Cox, the Democratic presidential nominee of four years ago, came to New York today to attempt to "harmonize" the discordant forces of the convention.

Declaring he would not accept the nomination of the convention if it were to "harmonize" the discordant forces of the party, Cox declared his only interest now was directed towards bringing the various elements of the body together. He will not favor any special candidate.

Police Stop A Brawl Before Fatal Results

The Belle Vernon police headed by Chief of Police W. L. Bierer were called at midnight Saturday night to settle a free-for-all fight that started at the home of Pete Petroni, an Italian of Fifth and Main streets, between Petroni and three colored men, the police stopping the drunken brawl just before it proved fatal.

The fight started when Petroni hit John Johnson, one of the colored men who lives in the same house, over the head with a wine bottle. Arthur Faulkner and William McCoy joined in the affray and the Italian was getting the worst of it when the police interfered. He was cut on the back with a knife, a finger of his right hand was almost severed, and he was bit on the nose. The four men were taken to the Belle Vernon police station, where they left forfeits of $50 for a hearing this evening at 7 o'clock.

A Civil War Veteran Dies Saturday Night

William Merceron Hart, 87 years old, a Civil War veteran, died as the result of a fractured hip in Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, Saturday night. He lived in California.

He was born in Mongolia, Ohio, July 7, 1837, and early in life moved to Virginia, where he lived until the Civil war. He was a member of the First West Virginia Infantry, acting as hospital steward under Dr. Bagley. After the war he moved to Oil City, where for some time he worked in the oil fields.

Later he moved to Pittsburgh, where he engaged in the grocery business. In 1874 he went to California and had since lived there. On his arrival there he entered the retail grocery business, later becoming a partner of his father-in-law, G. M. Eberman. Since Mr. Eberman's death he ran the business himself until 1914, when he retired from active business.

Mr. Hart was one of the most active of California residents in civic work and always took an interest in the progress of the town. He had always taken an active interest in the G. A. R., and had served on the jury at Washington as late as 1921. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Bessie Eberman Hart, he leaves a son, William E. Hart, of Parkers Landing, and a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Hart Lewis, of Wilkesburg. Three grandchildren also survive.

CLASS OF 70 IN FIRST COMMUNION

Rev. Father John B. McKavney, pastor of St. Timothy Catholic church of Smithton, formerly assistant pastor of St. Jerome's church, officiated at a beautiful first communion service yesterday morning, when a class of approximately 70 boys and girls, who have been trained by Miss Nora Reilly and Miss Mary Escher of Charleroi for the past three months, received their first holy communion.

The services started with a procession marching into the auditorium of the church from the sanctuary, the march being played by Miss Elsie Horn of Charleroi. The girls were attired in white dresses and veils and made a striking appearance. Miss Theresa Bailey and Miss Anna Fiedler, of this place, sang a number of beautiful selections.

At the conclusion of the services and an address delivered by Father McKavney, which proved interesting and instructive, and the class was served breakfast in the rear rooms. The members of the class were from Smithton, Hazelkirk, Van Meter and Fitzhenry.

COMMUNION AND RECEPTION OF MEMBERS

The Washington Avenue Presbyterian church observed its first communion under the new pastorate yesterday morning. An audience that filled the church took part in the service. Nineteen new members were received, nearly all being heads of families. This makes twenty-nine members to be received since the beginning of the present pastorate, which began April 10.

DISASTER FOLLOWS BRIDGE COLLAPSE

FORMER FACTORY EMPLOYEE CALLED BY DEATH

A wellknown and highly respected citizen for 15 years of Charleroi, died last evening at 7:50 o'clock at his late home in 1009 Lincoln avenue, following a lingering illness.

The deceased who has lived retired for the past few years, was an employee of the Macbeth-Evans Glass company for a period of eleven or twelve years, and was a native of Austria. Before coming to Charleroi he resided in Pricedale, and while working in the mine at that place, twenty-two years ago, lost his left foot. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Marchalk, and six children, John, Peter, George, Andrew, Mary and Mrs. John McCloskey, all of Charleroi. The deceased was a member of the Slavonic society of Charleroi.

Funeral services will take place Wednesday morning in the Holy Ghost Greek Catholic church. Interment will follow in the Calvary cemetery.

Boy Is Drowned In Lake While Family Watched The Accident

Christ Keller, aged 15 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Keller of West Brownsville was drowned in Gorley's Lake, 12 miles east of Uniontown yesterday at 2:30 o'clock as the family watched the sad accident. The lad swam across the lake and had nearly reached the pier on his return, when he sank to his doom.

Harry and Donald McIntyre, Uniontown men, went to the rescue of the boy and brought him to shore, but efforts to revive him proved futile. The report of the doctors was to the effect that the lad's death was due to heart failure, and the coroner pronounced it accidental death.

DRIVER ESCAPES BUT HIS CAR IS DAMAGED

When Philip Mollenauer, who was driving a Ford truck yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, lost control of the machine and it crashed into the stone steps leading into the Bank of Charleroi and Trust Company, he was fortunate in escaping injury; but the spring of the truck was broken, the axle bent, and two new front tires were punctured.

Mollenauer was driving up Fifth street, and Lloyd Bowers, propelling a Peerless seven-passenger touring car, was coming down Fallowfield avenue. Noting that a collision was imminent, Bowers stopped his car, but Mollenauer lost control of the Ford, crashing into the stone steps.

Two Die of Injuries, And Thirteen Others Are Hurt, When Footpath On Railroad Trestle Gives Way

TIME 7:30 SATURDAY NIGHT

Crumple Beneath the Weight of Hundreds Who Had Assembled to See An Automobile Which Had Been Wrecked Against A Stone Wall

Two are dead and 13 others were hurt, at least two more of the number seriously, when a footpath on the Monongahela Railroad trestle over Bank street at the Monongahela wharf at Brownsville gave way Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock under the weight of hundreds of persons who had gathered to see an automobile which had been wrecked against a stone wall.

The dead men are Milo Long, aged 35, whose passing occurred at the Brownsville hospital; and E. J. Neville, 43 years old, train inspector. Mr. Neville's death occurred last night. Others hurt, as reported, are: H. O. Hornbake, aged 45, justice of the peace, condition serious, not thought critical; Charles Snyder, aged 32, condition critical; Clarence Addison, aged 22; Roy Long, aged 19; Earl Storey, aged 29; Belle Stallard, aged 16; Andrew Vilcheck, aged 21; Michael Magda, aged 22; W. B. Whorrels, aged 35; George Swager, aged 35. When the timber supports of the footpath gave way under the excessive weight, the crowd fell 40 feet to the cobblestone wharf. The cries of the injured brought hundreds of pedestrians seeking friends and relatives in the heap of unconscious persons.

All available physicians and ambulances were rushed to the wharf immediately. Those only slightly injured were given first aid treatment and sent to their homes, but the seriously injured were taken to the Brownsville General hospital. Long died without regaining consciousness.

An automobile parked in Bank street started a driverless dash down a grade which ended when it crashed against a stone wall which supports the railroad trestle. The brakes refused to hold, it is believed, and the car sped across Second street and Water street to the wharf. No person was in the car.

TRUCK DRIVER IS ROBBED OF $170

W. E. Sterner, 35 years old, driver of a National Biscuit Company truck of Pittsburgh, was the victim of a bold holdup which occurred Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock on the Monongahela-Finleyville road at Lank Hill when two negroes driving an old model Chevrolet touring car robbed him of $170 at the point of revolvers. Sterner was enroute to Belle Vernon from Pittsburgh with a load of bread. After crossing the peak of Lank Hill, Sterner noticed a car parked alongside the road near the overhead bridge of the Pittsburgh Railways company. He slowed up in order to pass the car and also because of the dangerous curve at that point. As he neared the parked car, one of the negroes jumped on the running board of the truck and pointed a .38-calibre revolver at the driver, commanding him to stop and hand over his money.

Sterner brought the car to an immediate stop and then the second negro mounted to the running board and struck him a vicious blow in the jaw, ordering him to hand over the money at once. Sterner handed over the money in his possession. The highwaymen, after making Sterner back his car off the improved portion of the highway commanded him to remain there while they entered their machine and drove toward

Wilbur Cooper Virtually Wins His Own Game At Cincinnati Yesterday

Wilbur Cooper played ball against the Reds yesterday afternoon at Cincinnati and came out victorious by a 9 to 2 score. It was largely a Cooper day, Wilbur pitching great ball along the entire route, especially when the enemy threatened most, and contributing to a large extent in the run getting. It was his triple in the second round that drove in a tally and took the heart out of Herdicks and incidentally spreading much gloom through the crowded stands. It was his double in the fourth that added to the count and his two runs, one in the person of Woodrow Wilson was largely concerned in Mr. Wilson's nomination. But for Bryan's efforts at the Baltimore convention there might have been another nomination, in which event the course of history would have been changed. But the object of these brief observations is to call attention to Mr. Bryan's incidental utterance, which is worthy of wide note. In naming several Southern as well as northern candidates whom he regarded as eligible, he said:

"I want to pay back today the debt of gratitude I owe to the South. The South has helped this nation secure very economic reform that has been secured in the last 60 years. Some people have said you can't nominate a man from the South. We have had two wars since the Civil war and the sons of those who wore the gray and those who wore the blue were ready to die together on the battlefield. The South furnished as many soldiers to the late war as it furnished to the Confederacy. The South furnished more money to do our part in the World War than it furnished to the Confederacy. It is time we should hush forever the voice that says we should not recognize the South in full participation of our party triumphs. The man who says the North would not vote for a Southern man libels the North. What this nation wants is a man whose heart beats in sympathy with the common people, and they don't care where he was born."

HARMARVILLE CONSUMERS TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

Tomorrow night at 5:30 o'clock on the Charleoi grounds, the attraction will be the crack Harmarville Consumers. It is probable that the pitchers will be either Westzell or Edwards, for Harmarville, and Beatty for Charleoi.

The Consumers won the semi-professional baseball championship of Western Pennsylvania last year, and are considered the peer of any of the semi-professional teams in this section of the state. They have been here this season, winning from the locals, but Manager Mathers with a strengthened lineup, hopes to reverse the decision tomorrow night.

The team of last night should put the grounds in good condition, providing Jumper Plunge behaves himself between now and the time the game is called tomorrow night.

On Saturday the Legion team of Monessen will play here.

"SHADOW OF THE EAST" WORTHY SUCCESSOR

E. M. Hull's "The Shadow of the East," as presented by William Fox at the Majestic theatre, is a worthy successor to that author's other famous novel and motion picture, "The Sheik." With Frank Mayo, Mildred Harris and Norman Kerry in the leading roles, this story of the enchanting East is told with a graphic forcefulness which brings home the true power of the Orient.

Unlike "The Sheik," however, "The Shadow of the East" deals with the effect of that mysterious country upon a white man. In the case of "The Sheik," the central character was a Bedouin, an Arabian chieftain. The motive will be shown today and tomorrow at the local theatre.

MARTIN PITCHES NO HIT, NO RUN GAME FOR BRADDOCK ELKS

Abe Martin, star southpaw of the Independent circuit, a twirler who formerly "tossed them over" for the Charleoi Independents, pitched probably the best game of his career yesterday when he set down at Spangler the Spangler Independents without a hit or run and did not permit an opposing runner to reach third base in a nine-inning game full of thrills. Martin, pitching for the Braddock Elks, won a 7-0 victory over the Spangler club with the Elks wielding a timely willow against Norton, Spangler finger.

Spangler never had a chance to score for brilliant fielding on the part of the visitors coupled with Martin's superb pitching enabled the Elks to prance home ahead of the Spangler team. But the Elks did not get going and Johnny Reed played a brilliant game, both at bat and in the field. Kelly was also a stellar performer and his timely hitting was effective. Braddock made several fine catches that added interest to the game which was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season.

SHIFTS MADE IN OFFICE FORCE

County Recorder, Vlentour, has made some changes in his office force and added a clerk as the result of one retirement.

Mrs. Vesta Miller has been promoted to the position formerly held by Mr. McBurney and Miss Helen McNary has been made index clerk, succeeding Mrs. Miller in that place. Miss Bernice Baker, a former resident of Washington and daughter of the late G. P. Baker, a well known member of the Washington bar, has been appointed to a clerkship in the office.

The salary board met on Thursday and fixed the salaries of Mr. Valentour's office force as follows: Mrs. Vesta Miller, $225 per month; Miss Helen McNary, $125 per month; Miss Ruth Galbraith and Miss Bernice Baker, each $115 per month.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AT CONNEAUT LAKE

Walter H. Fielding, superintendent of St. Mary's Episcopal church school, diocese given scholarship to attend the Conneaut Lake School conference by Bishop Alexander Mann, left this afternoon for Conneaut Lake, where he will spend the following 11 days taking courses of study during the morning hours and enjoying the various recreations of the resort in the afternoon. Rev. Albert N. Roberts, pastor of Trinity church, Monessen, who was one of the others appointed by the bishop, also left today.

It pays to advertise in the Mail.

SEEK MONEY FOR NEW TRUCK

The Monessen Volunteer Firemen are planning a gala celebration to extend from Saturday, July 12 to Saturday, July 19. The affair will be a street carnival with the center of activity at the freight station. Committees have been at work for some time arranging the various details and if the weather conditions are favorable it is hoped that the fire laddies will realize sufficient to pay off the installment due on the new fire truck. At the present they have but $500 in the bank and on August 1 the installment of $3,500 will fall due on the new truck.

Following the grand opening of the carnival on Saturday evening the big night will be celebrated on Monday when it is expected that fully a thousand visiting firemen will be in Monessen for a street parade taking with them their fire fighting apparatus. There will be a number of bands and drum corps and already six companies from surrounding communities have signified their intentions of being present for the evening.

Tuesday evening's celebration will be featured by open air boxing bouts and Wednesday evening there will be a band concert and vocal selections and on Thursday evening the wrestlers will hold forth with the pugilists playing a return engagement. A jazz band will be out every evening to add to the occasion and with the 12 stands there promises to be plenty of excitement and entertainment for the guests.
